OHIO STATE FOOTBALL INFORMATION

Members of the Press, Radio and Television:

Speaking for the entire Athletic Staff of The Ohio State University, we thank you for the fine coverage you have given to Buckeye athletic teams. You have helped Ohio State finish in the top three nationally in home attendance for each of the past 35 years and to lead the nation 21 of those years.

This Media Guide has been written to provide as much information as possible about Ohio State University football, both for 1986 and in the past. Every effort has been made to assure its accuracy and usefulness.

Requests for additional information such as photos, slides, statistics, or for press, radio or photographic accommodations should be addressed to the Sports Information Office, Room 124, St. John Arena.

Please make your working press reservations as early as possible. All requests for press box space should be in writing. Only daily newspapers are accepted.

Visiting radio stations desiring to broadcast from Ohio Stadium must be cleared through Ohio State Sports Information Director Marvin Homan. Lines will not be installed otherwise.

Ohio radio stations must clear through Mr. Thomas Stewart, Vice President and General Manager of Station WBNS in Columbus. Station WBNS has the exclusive radio rights to Ohio State Football for the 1986 season.

To avoid congestion on the sidelines, it is necessary to limit the number of photographers.

We hope you will find this Media Guide suitable to your needs. If you have any suggestions that would make it better and more informative, please make them known to us.

Ohio State Football Outlook

Ohio State expects to have a good football team in 1986. How good depends upon keeping key players free of injuries and upon the rapid development of about six new athletes.

Normally Ohio State enters the fall season with a set lineup or with at most two starting positions to be decided. Spring practice determines who will start.

This year spring practice decided little. An inordinate number of injuries and rehabilitation cases forced an ever-changing make-shift lineup and most of the questions that existed before spring drills remained unanswered when spring football concluded.

Compounding the problem is a demanding schedule that has seven opponents having played in bowl games last year. The Buckeyes must get off to a fast start for their earliest-ever opener against powerful Alabama on August 27 in the Kickoff Classic. And it doesn't get any easier with Washington and Colorado, both 1985 bowl teams, following in succession.

Coach Bruce on Ohio State

"We have our share of good football players. We wanted to establish our regular lineup by the end of spring practice but we couldn't do this because of so many players being out. We wanted to do some experimenting but we couldn't without some key players.

"Our passing should be strong with Jim Karsatos and we have a great, great receiver in Cris Carter. Our running game needs improvement. It was too inconsistent last year.

"Defensively we should be as strong as last year, perhaps stronger. Chris Spielman is an excellent linebacker and Eric Kumerow finished strong. Our secondary will be playing together for the third year as a unit.

"The most important thing is that our injured players all return ready to play in the opener. Some inexperienced players must come through. We may have to depend more on freshmen this year."

OFFENSE

Eight regulars return from a team that passed for 2,405 yards, ran for 2,098, averaged 27 points per game and won nine times.

There are some standout players both in the line and in the backfield, yet there are questions in both areas. The line must have a new starter at tackle and another at guard. Experienced linemen are in short supply and the overall line depth is shallow.

In the backfield, a starter must be found at the flanker position and the ground attack needs more punch.

Line

At split end, Carter is one of the premier receivers in college football. An outstanding leaper with soft, sure hands, he repeatedly comes up with unbelievable catches. With 99 receptions for 1,598 yards and 16 touchdowns in two seasons, Carter figures to set school records in all three categories by the time he graduates. Behind him are speedy Nate Harris and Gary Clift, a converted quarterback. Neither has caught a pass in a college game.

At tight end, dependable Ed Taggart will start for the third year. He caught 31 passes in 1985 and plays with total effort. John Hutchison is an able backup. He played 160.5 minutes last year. Reserves Frank Hoak and Jim Palmer show promise.

Larry Kotterman is the only experienced tackle. He was a regular in 1985 and played extremely well. A new starter must be found on the left side. Freshmen redshirts Joe Staysniak and Tim Moxley are leading candidates. Staysniak has an edge in fundamentals, while Moxley, at 290, is the heaviest man on the squad. Jay Shaffer and Mike Durham are older but have virtually no experience. Several in-coming freshmen must be ready to help at tackle.

Jeff Uhlenhake is an outstanding guard. Converted from defense, he started all games except the opener in 1985. Greg Zackeroff will likely start at the other guard spot. He played sparingly last year. Steve France and Karl Coles, both converted from defense, are the top replacements along with Mike Kuri, injured all of last season. None of the three, France, Coles nor Kuri, has played a minute of college football.

Bob Maggs is the team's top offensive lineman. Big, strong and agile, he is of All-America caliber. Rich Morris and Dan Hirneise, the latter coming off knee surgery, will supply depth at center.

Backfield

Karsatos was an excellent quarterback in 1985. He completed 61.2 percent of his passes and threw for 19 touchdowns, both Ohio State season records. A dependable leader and a talented passer, Karsatos is a key man for the Buckeyes in 1986.

Tom Tupa is the top replacement at quarterback followed by Scott Powell and Tom Bolyard. Tupa features a different style than Karsatos which adds to the offense. Powell didn't play quarterback until his senior year of high school. Bolyard, redshirted in 1985, is a versatile athlete with considerable skill.

John Wooldridge is an experienced tailback. He was the team's second leading rusher in 1984 and was the top ground gainer last year. Vince Workman was pressed into duty as a freshman in 1985 and performed well. He is the top break-away threat.

Hard-luck Barry Walker, a talented but injury prone athlete, has moved to tailback from fullback. He has a good blend of speed and power. Roman Bates has divided his time between fullback and tailback. He proved what he could do as a freshman and sophomore.

George Cooper started all 12 games at fullback in 1985. He gained 581 yards in 129 carries. Behind him are three inexperienced players, Bill Matlock, a 1985 walk-on, Steve Gresock from junior college, and Chris Boddie, a freshman who entered Ohio State at mid-year. If necessary, Walker or Bates could return to fullback.

A replacement is needed at flanker for talented Mike Lanese, now a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University in England. Jamie Holland, Dino Dawson and Everett

Ross waged a no-decision battle in spring practice and the competition will continue this fall. Holland, from a junior college, has excellent credentials. Dawson appears to be a big play athlete, whle Ross is a converted tailback. None of the three caught a pass last year.

Defense

With eight regulars returning from the 1985 team, including the entire secondary, the Buckeyes should have an improved defensive team. Speed is emphasized over weight, as Ohio State's defensive unit is below average in size.

There is considerable talent at the linebacking positions and although the line is experienced, it lacks a dominant, take-charge athlete.

There have been several position changes and more were planned prior to spring practice. It is hoped that several freshmen can be of immediate help.

Line

If Ohio State uses a 3-4 alignment, the three starters will come from Darryl Lee, Fred Ridder, Mike Sullivan, Henry Brown and Ray Holliman. The two who do not start will become top replacements.

Lee is the most obvious starter. He has missed only one game in the last three seasons and he became a regular in 1985. Lee can make the big play and has a pleasant, unselfish attitude. Ridder started six games in 1985 and has divided his time between inside linebacker and tackle. Strong physically and sound fundamentally, he has only modest size.

Mike Sullivan was an inside linebacker last year. He will be moved to the nose guard position when the Buckeye defense calls for that alignment. Although neither tall nor heavy, Mike is highly competitive and extremely quick. He thrives on contact football.

Brown started four games in 1985. He can play both tackle and over the middle but is more at home as a tackle. Holliman came on strong last year starting the final two games with Michigan and Brigham Young. Buckeye coaches were expecting him to make a positive move in the spring when an illness kept him out of all drills.

Pat Thomas, a 1985 redshirt, and Jim Davidson, who lettered as an outside linebacker, will be watched carefully. Thomas played well in the spring and progressed to a backup role. Davidson is a highly intelligent, determined athlete, who is smaller than most defensive tackles.

Linebackers

Kumerow may be headed for stardom. Tall, quick and much stronger than when he first enrolled as a quarterback, he has all the qualities to excel at his position. He is Ohio State's top pass rusher.

At the other outside position, a two-way battle shapes up between Derek Isaman and Alex Higdon. While not big, Isaman plays with rare discipline and desire. Quick, clever and smart, he made a big impression in 1985. Higdon is an exceptional athlete who has been hampered by two position changes in as many years. He lettered as a tight end in 1984 and as a defensive tackle in 1985. He is strong and has good speed.

Tom Anderzack, Mike McCray and Dedrick Howard will vie for the backup role to Kumerow.

Spielman is a solid candidate for All-America honors as an inside linebacker. Fast, strong and highly competitive, he has been called by Coach Bruce, "The most intense athlete I have ever coached." Spielman, all-Big Ten in 1985, finished second in tackles in the conference, even though he missed one game.

John Sullivan, of the highly competitive Sullivan twins, has been moved to an inside position opposite Spielman. John is tough, quick and fearless.

Reserve strength at the inside positions will come from Mike Kee and Scott Leach, each of whom has won two letters as a reserve. Kee had an impressive spring and appears to be injury-free. Leach, a spirited, emotional athlete, has always played well when called upon.

Secondary

Ohio State has a wealth of experience in the secondary, with Sonny Gordon, William White, Greg Rogan and Terry White all starting the third season as regulars. Although small in size, this foursome has proved surprisingly durable.

Reserve strength will come from Sean Bell, Ray Jackson, Dwight Smith and David Brown. Additionally, there are several highly regarded freshmen.

Kicking Game

Tupa is a gifted punter. If he maintains his current two-year average of 44.3 yards per kick, he will become Ohio State's best punter ever.

Bolyard and Mike Morton, a transfer, are capable punters if Tupa is not available. Bolyard averaged 42.1 yards per punt as a high school senior, while Morton averaged 40.8 yards as Cincinnati's backup punter for two years.

The graduation of place-kicker Rich Spangler leaves a big hole. Spangler made more conversions, 177, than any Big Ten player in history.

Jeff Compton, Morton and in-coming freshman Pat O'Morrow, will compete for extrå points, field goals and kickoffs. Morton made 34 of 35 extra points and 15 of 25 field goals at Cincinnati over a two-year period.

Summary

Ohio State has some excellent football players. Certain key athletes—Karsatos, Carter, Maggs, Kotterman, Uhlenhake and Cooper on offense, and Spielman, Kumerow, William White and Lee on defense, must stay healthy if the team is to function effectively. Team depth is only fair and there is a noticeable shortage of offensive line replacements. Several inexperienced players must come through.

The schedule is loaded and requires a fast start. There is impressive talent in the freshman class, and first year players may be used more in 1986 than is customary.

The ingredients are present for another good Ohio State team, but there are more questions than usual regarding starting personnel.

Earle Bruce — Head Football Coach

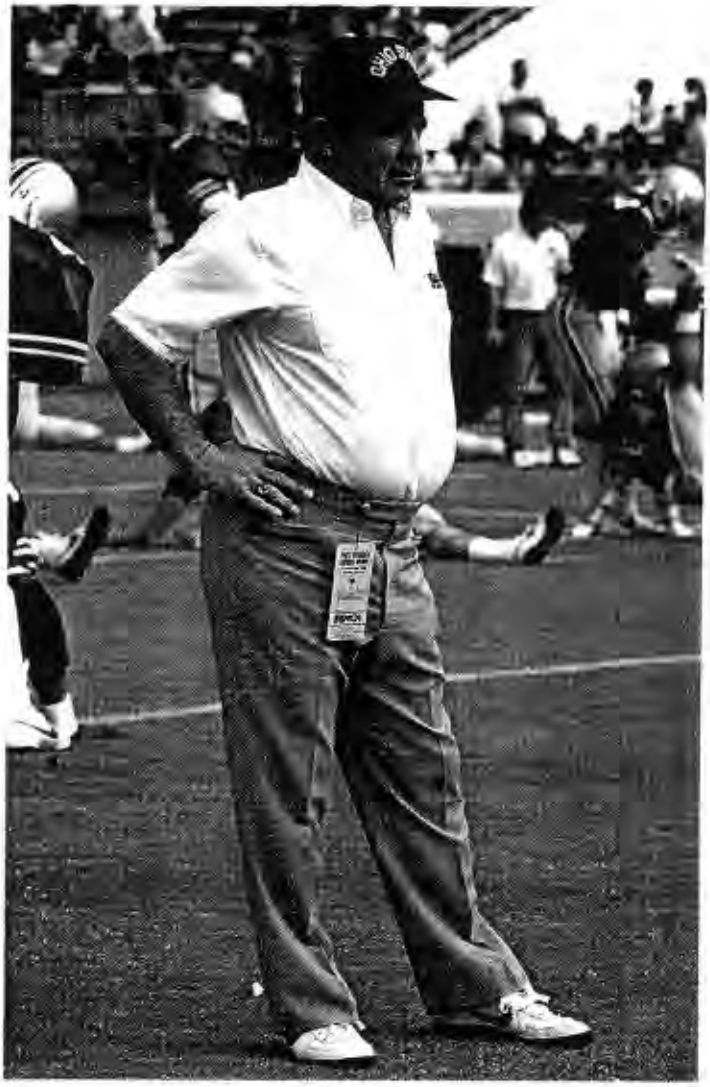
Earle Bruce has been head football coach at The Ohio State University for seven years. During this time he has led the Buckeyes to three Big Ten championships, a bowl appearance each year and an overall record of 65 wins and 19 losses, the best record of any school or coach in the Big Ten over the past seven seasons. Additionally, Bruce has had two other teams that barely missed winning the conference crown, once losing out by a single game and a second time by percentage points.

Bruce, 55, has completed 33 years of coaching, including 14 years as a head coach in college. He was a head coach in high school for ten seasons and compiled a remarkable 82-12-3 record. As a college head coach, Bruce is 111-53.

Under Bruce, Ohio State has had winning seasons each year, winning nine or more games each season. The Buckeyes have been one of the nation's most productive offensive units, averaging over 31 points per game over a seven-year span.

Bruce has established himself as an outstanding recruiter and developer of talent. Six All-America football players have performed for Bruce at Ohio State; tailback Keith Byars, quarterback Art Schlichter, guards Ken Fritz and Jim Lachey and linebackers Marcus Marek and Pepper Johnson. No less than 42 Ohio State football players have been named first-team all-Big Ten selections.

Bruce's players have enjoyed unusual success in the classroom as well. Since he has been coach, Ohio State has had 22 football players named to the Big Ten all-academic team and there have been seven first-team Academic All-America selections. In each of the past four years, Ohio State has had a player win the prestigious National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholarship, awarded annually to the 11 top student-athletes in college football. In 1985, Ohio State's Mike Lanese was chosen to be a Rhodes Scholar, perhaps the top academic honor that can be won by a college student.



Bruce was born in Pittsburgh and grew up in Cumberland, Maryland. An outstanding high school football player, he enrolled at Ohio State in the fall of 1949. A knee injury ended his football playing career. At this point, he turned to coaching at the urging of his college mentor, Woody Hayes.

Bruce graduated from Ohio State in 1953 and began his coaching career the following fall as an assistant at Mansfield High School.

Bruce's first head coaching opportunity came in 1956 at Salem High School. He spent four years there, four at Sandusky and two at Massillon in a ten-year stint that saw him win Ohio High School Coach of the Year honors three times. His combined record at those three schools was 82-12-3, including a 20-0 mark at Massillon, and he closed out his prep career with a 42-game winning streak.

Bruce returned to his alma mater in 1966 as an assistant to Hayes. He spent a total of six years with the Buckeyes, the first two as coach of the secondary and the last four as offensive line coach. During that time OSU won three Big Ten titles, a national championship, played in two Rose Bowls and won 43 of 57 games.

In 1972, Bruce departed for the University of Tampa. He spent one year at the Florida school, notching a 10-2 mark and directing Tampa to a win in the Tangerine Bowl.

Bruce went to Iowa State in 1973, inheriting a program that had enjoyed just two winning seasons in ten years. Bruce's first three teams all finished with 4-7 marks, but his next three had winning seasons with eight victories each year. His Iowa State teams went to bowl games the last two years. Bruce twice was named Big Eight Coach of the Year while with the Cyclones.

After directing Iowa State to the Peach Bowl in 1978, Bruce returned to Ohio State in 1979, succeeding the man he had both played for and coached under, Woody Hayes.

Bruce's first OSU team posted a brilliant 11-1 record. The only loss that year was a one point setback in the Rose Bowl that cost the Buckeyes the national championship. Following the 1979 season Bruce was named Big Ten and National Coach of the Year.

Since that first year, Bruce has put together six straight 9-3 seasons and taken the Buckeyes to the Fiesta, Liberty, Holiday, Fiesta, Rose and Citrus bowls, respectively.

To those seeking a quality education from an honored, nationally acclaimed institution, The Ohio State University is an ideal choice.

An eminent faculty, enthusiastic and responsive students, nationally ranked academic programs, excellent facilities and a wide range of research programs all contribute to Ohio State's rich tradition of excellence.

Few if any universities in the nation have as much to offer students. The Ohio State University offers, 7,400 courses covering 152 instructional areas. An undergraduate may select a major from 206 areas of study. The University consists of 18 colleges plus a Graduate School. Freshmen may enter any of 13 colleges, which minimizes the overall size.

The student-faculty ratio remains constant at 15-1, refuting the assumption that students at large universities are virtually unknown to their professors.

The student body reflects wide diversity, coming from each of 88 counties in Ohio, from all 50 states and from over 100 foreign countries. The more than 2,600 foreign students contribute heavily to the cultural enrichment of the campus community.

Ohio State ranks fourth nationally among public universities with 400 Merit Scholars. The University maintains a widely diversified Honors Program for 2,900 academically gifted students and offers 140 courses for these students.

The unique charm of the Ohio State campus is immediately evident. Although located in Columbus, a vibrant growing city of 565,000, the attractively landscaped campus, adorned with special flower and shrubbery arrangements and complete with tree-lined streets, has a serenity and almost pastoral setting that suggests it is far removed from a metropolitan center. Ohio State provides the best of two worlds, a quiet, charming campus conducive to study and scholarly pursuits along with the advantages and conveniences of a major population center.

Education at Ohio State flourishes beyond the undergraduate level. All the professional colleges, Law, Medicine, Dentistry, Optometry, Pharmacy, Nursing and Veterinary Medicine are located on the Columbus campus. With over 3,000 students in professional colleges, Ohio State has the second largest professional school enrollment in the country.

The Optometry College is rated among the top three in the nation and the Pharmacy College currently ranks third. The College of Veterinary Medicine consistently ranks in the top four in the country. The University Medical Center is experiencing continual expansion and includes a hospital, a dental clinic, an optometry clinic and a new cancer research center.

The Graduate School is respected throughout the nation. Over 9,500 students are working toward an advanced degree. Ohio State offers 116 programs leading to a master's degree and 86 on a doctoral level.

place to learn and to plan your future

Additionally, The Ohio State University has become a nationally recognized research center. Literally thousands of research projects are being conducted on the Columbus campus or in University research centers around the state.

When classes have ended and the weekend is at hand, the Ohio State campus continues to be a center of activity. There are countless clubs and organizations for students with special interests and talents; there are cultural events in the form of concerts, drama, movies, lectures and a Great Artist Series at Ohio State's Mershon Auditorium. There are parties and social events in the dormitories and in the fraternities and sororities. And there are athletic events.

The thrills, excitement and pageantry of 89,000 fans in Ohio Stadium on an autumn afternoon cheering for the Buckeyes is an unforgettable experience. And there is basketball, with 13,681 fans jamming St. John Arena during the winter months. At Ohio State there is something for everyone.

The Ohio State University has made a profound and lasting impression on thousands and thousands of students. For many, Ohio State is the high-point in their life. The opportunity to learn, to make friends and to plan your future has no limits. The door is open and is waiting for you.

The President—Dr. Edward H. Jennings

Edward H. Jennings became the 10th president of The Ohio State University, September 1, 1981, after two years as president of the University of Wyoming. He also holds an appointment as professor in the academic faculty of finance at Ohio State.

Previously, he was vice president for finance and university services at the University of Iowa, where he also was a faculty member for 10 years.

Born Feb. 18, 1937, in Minneapolis, Dr. Jennings received his bachelor of science degree in industrial management from the University of North Carolina in 1959 and his M.B.A. in 1963 from Western Reserve University (now Case Western) in Cleveland. He earned his doctorate in finance at Michigan in 1969.

Dr. Jennings' background includes experience in both the academic community and private enterprise. He began his teaching career as a visiting lecturer in finance at East Michigan University, Ypsilanti, in 1967. He was an industrial engineer for Deering Milliken in Spartanburg, S.C., from 1959-61, and a senior industrial engineer, production planner and production supervisor with Merck and Company, West Point, Pa., from 1963-65.

After receiving his Ph.D., Dr. Jennings joined the University of Iowa faculty in 1969, rising from assistant professor to professor of finance and serving in several administrative capacities.

He traveled to Tanzania on a Rockefeller Foundation grant to teach finance and also assist in forming a College of Management. While abroad, he served as adviser to Tanzania's National Developmental Corporation and to the Rockefeller Foundation regarding management education in East Africa. He also has been an adviser to the World Bank on establishing interest rates on loans to developing countries and is a member of the American and Western Finance Associations.

His international experience also extends to the Far East. He led the university's delegation to the People's Republic of China, Taiwan and Japan in 1983 and was a member of the Governor's Trade and Investment Mission to Japan, South Korea and Taiwan in 1984.

He was appointed by the governor in June 1983 as a member of the Development Advisory Council which works with the Ohio Department of Development. He is a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges and serves on its Committee on Financing Higher Education and its Ad Hoc Committee on Regulatory Reform. He also is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Merit Scholarship Corp.

In 1985, Dr. Jennings was named to chair a national panel to assess the baccalaureate degree in nursing.

Other memberships include: the United Negro College Fund's Central Ohio Advisory Board; Health Education Committee of the Association of American Universities; the Executive Committee of the Board of Electors of the Insurance Hall of Fame; President's Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics of the American Council on Education, and the NCAA Select Committee on Athletic Problems and Concerns in Higher Education.

President Jennings

Jennings is a member of the boards of directors of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce, Ohio Bell Telephone Co., Banc One Corp., and the Center of Science and Industry (COSI). He is a member of the Board of Trustees of Children's Hospital Inc. of Columbus and the Columbus School for Girls.

In 1981, he received the Ohio Governor's Award for his contribution to education. Marietta College in 1984 presented him with an honorary doctor of laws degree in recognition of his distinguished career in higher education.

Dr. Jennings is the co-author of a textbook, "Fundamentals of Investments," now in its third printing, and the author of several articles that have been published in academic journals and professional reviews on bonds, common stock, inflation and other investment and financial topics.

Dr. Jennings and his wife, the former Mary Eleanor Winget, a native of Bellefontaine, Ohio, have two sons, William F. and Steven W. Jennings.

Director of Athletics–Richard M. "Rick" Bay

Richard M. "Rick" Bay officially took office as The Ohio State University's fifth Director of Athletics, July 1, 1984. He came to Ohio State from the University of Oregon, where he served in a similar capacity for nearly three years.

In his first year at Ohio State, Bay took over one of the largest and most comprehensive college athletic programs in the country. Unfortunately, it was also one of the most expensive. The Ohio State intercollegiate program has 30 sports, 16 for men, 13 for women and one that is coeducational. Between 750 and 800 student-athletes participate in sports each school year, and the department budget now exceeds $16 million annually.

Football and basketball receipts, which up until recently were able to fund the entire program, can no longer carry the financial burden, as the costs have increased dramatically due to inflation and the rapid growth of women's athletics.

In assessing Ohio State's huge athletic budget and the potential income, Bay immediately set out to increase revenue through other means. A stepped up fund raising program has been instituted, new marketing procedures have been adopted along with special merchandising concepts.

"We simply must generate more revenue to maintain our program and keep it competitive," says Bay. "New facilities are needed and at today's prices we are talking big dollars."

As a part of a massive Ohio State University Campaign to raise $350 million over the next five years, Bay has launched a $45 million drive to build new athletic facilities and to expand and renovate some of the existing buildings. The project is to be carried out in three phases, with the first phase scheduled to begin in the fall of 1986. When completed, Ohio State's athletic plant will be among the best nationally.

Bay is a man of unusual talents and of diverse interests. His father was a wrestling coach and an athletic administrator and his stepmother was an English teacher, who had a special interest in Elizabethan drama. Rick's interests and talents reflect this.

A native of Waukegan, Illinois, he graduated from high school with a 3.9 grade point average. As an athlete, he won all-Illinois honors in football, wrestling and baseball. He was chosen "Illinois Athlete of the Year" in 1961.

Bay graduated with honors from Michigan in 1965, majoring in English and speech. In athletics, he was a standout wrestler and played quarterback in football. He won two Big Ten championships in wrestling and won All-America honors in 1964. In his senior year, 1965, he was named "Outstanding Wrestler in the Big Ten."

Following graduation, he worked in commercial radio, and in 1966, was named assistant wrestling coach at Michigan. In 1970 he became head wrestling coach. In four years as head coach, Bay's Michigan teams compiled a 43-5-3 dual meet record, including a 31-2-2 mark against Big Ten opposition. The 1973 Michigan team won the Big Ten championship and the 1974 team was runner-up in the NCAA. In 1973, Bay was named "College Wrestling Coach of the Year."

After the 1974 wrestling season, Bay joined the Michigan Alumni Association. He directed the association's successful $2.6 million fund raising campaign for a new Alumni Center.

For a ten-year period, Bay also served as color commentator for Michigan football on radio.

Additionally, Bay is a patron of the arts, with a special interest in dance, opera and theatre. He has seen literally hundreds of professional productions throughout the world and served as "Theatre Critic" for an Ann Arbor radio station.

In 1981 Bay left the Michigan Alumni Association to become Director of Athletics at the University of Oregon. He took over a troubled program that was in debt and about to go on NCAA probation.

In one year, Bay balanced the budget with increased revenue through a reorganization of a fund raising program. Some expenditures were reduced and the bond of trust between athletics and the public and the administration was greatly improved. The NCAA probation was lifted and Oregon athletics were operating on a sound financial base. Under Bay's guidance, Oregon raised more than one million dollars during the 1982-83 school year, a record high for athletic fund raising at the University.

After taking the position of Director of Athletics at Ohio State in 1984, Bay said, "I regard The Ohio State University athletic program to be one of the top five programs in the country. It has a tradition of excellence that is admired by everyone."

Rick and his wife, Denice, were married in June, 1984.

Ms. Bailey has played a major role in the development of women's sports at Ohio State, starting in 1965-66, when athletic competition began, to the present time, when Ohio State has 13 women's sports, each with full-time coaches and with generous budgets providing for full schedules and attractive travel. A successful women's program was guaranteed in 1976, when an extensive grant-in-aid program was instituted.

Ohio State women's teams have been very successful. The Lady Buckeye squads have won over twice as many Big Ten championships as any other conference school. Buckeye women's teams consistently have competed well on a national level in a variety of sports.

Ms. Bailey is a graduate of Miami University. She taught physical education at Earlham College and at Wayne State University before coming to Ohio State in 1956. In 1959, she became Associate Director of Recreation, Intramurals and Intercollegiate Sports for Women. She joined the Athletic Department in 1975 as Assistant Director.

Bill Myles — Associate Director of Athletics

Bill Myles was named Associate Director of Athletics on March 19, 1985. In this capacity, he oversees the entire 18 sports for men. This includes budgets, schedules, travel, home game administration and coach evaluation.

Prior to his present position, Myles served as an assistant football coach at Ohio State for eight years. He was hired by Coach Woody Hayes in 1977 and retained when Earle Bruce took over as head football coach in 1979.

Myles is a native of Kansas City and a veteran of 23 years of coaching experience. He graduated from Drake University in 1962, and, as an undergraduate, played center and linebacker in football.

He began a coaching career in 1962 in Kansas City as a high school assistant. In 1965, he became a head coach. In seven years as a head coach his teams posted a 45-20-3 record. In 1972, Myles went to the University of Nebraska as a line coach and in 1975 became linebacker coach.

Bill and his wife, Lorita, have a daughter, Debbie, and a son, Bill.

Allen Bohl — Assistant Director of Athletics

Dr. Allen R. Bohl serves as Assistant Director of Athletics for External Affairs. In this capacity he oversees the ticket office, fund raising, marketing and promotions. With the Athletic Department committed to increasing revenue, new marketing concepts and promotional ideas have been adopted along with an intensified fund raising campaign.

Dr. Bohl is responsible for incorporating new marketing plans, special promotions and a reorganized athletic fund raising program.

Dr. Bohl first joined the Athletic Department May 1, 1982, as Director of Athletic Fund Raising. He was promoted to Assistant Director of Athletics December 1, 1984 by Director Rick Bay. It was at this time Bohl's duties were expanded.

Bohl is a native of Vermillion, Ohio and a 1970 graduate of Bowling Green State University. He served four years in the U.S. Air Force, after which he earned a Ph.D. at Ohio State University in 1978.

He and his wife, Sherry, have three children, sons Brett and Nathan and daughter, Heidi.

Alabama Outlook

With 17 regulars returning from a team that posted a 9-2-1 record in 1985, you can expect a banner season from Coach Ray Perkins and his Alabama team.

With all-SEC quarterback Mike Shula directing the attack along with last year's two top rushers, Gene Jelks and Bobby Humphrey, and a stable of quality receivers, led by Albert Bell and Greg Richardson plus newcomers Darryl Thomas and Marco Battle, Alabama's offense packs plenty of top guns.

Defensively nine starters return from last year's team that held the opposition in check. Heading the defensive standouts are Joe Godwin, who led the team in tackles, LB Cornelius Bennett, NG Curt Jarvis and two stalwarts from the secondary, Rory Turner and Freddie Robinson.

Chris Mohr averaged 45.1 yards per punt as a freshman in 1985 and place-kicker Van Tiffin won a niche in the hearts of Tide fans with his 52-yard field goal on the final play to beat rival Auburn, 25-23.

Washington Outlook

The Washington Huskies have played in seven straight bowl games and are good bets to make it eight in 1986.

The Huskies return seven offensive starters, five regulars on defense and both kicking specialists. These starters are supplemented by 14 other players who started at least one game in 1985.

Washington has proven skill people on offense. Chris Chandler, QB, who completed 38 of 72 passes, will direct the offense. The two top rushers return, FB Rick Fenney and TB Vince Weathersby, as well as the four top receivers. Lonzell Hill and Weathersby each caught 46 passes last year and TE Rod Jones pulled down 33. The question with the offense is the line where only two-full-time regulars return from 1985.

There is some rebuilding needed on defense. Returning standouts are DT Reggie Rogers LB David Rill and WS Tim Peoples. In most cases there are lettermen available to fill the holes on defense.

The kicking game is strong with Jeff Jaeger second-team All-America, as place-kicker, and a three-year punting regular, Thane Cleland.

Last Year
Sept. 21 — At Boulder — 47,022

Colorado	7	0	0	6 — 13
Ohio State	7	15	0	14 — 36

Ohio State handed Colorado its first loss in three outings, 36-13, before an enthusiastic crowd in Boulder.

Colorado, running out of the wishbone offense, scored first and last, but the Buckeyes scored 36 points in between to win the second game of the year.

Ohio State rushed for 162 yards as tailback John Wooldridge accounted for 119 of the yards in 25 carries. Wooldridge also caught eight passes for 82 yards to have the finest day of his career.

Buckeye quarterback Jim Karsatos was outstanding with 18 of 26 for 181 yards and three touchdowns.

Defensively, Eric Kumerow had 10 tackles, including two quarterback sacks.

Colorado scored on its first possession, going 64 yards in just six plays with fullback Anthony Weatherspoon racing 35 yards to score. At this point Ohio State shut down the Buffs while the Buckeye offense rolled in high gear. The Ohio State offensive line dominated the line of scrimmage.

Utah Outlook

In 1985, his first year as football coach at Utah, Jim Fassel led the Utes to an 8-4 season. Utah was the sixth highest scoring team in the nation and ranked tenth in passing yardage, 266.6 yards per game.

There are 42 letterman returning from the 1985 team, including nine starters on offense. Larry Egger, QB, was seventh nationally in total offense and passed for over 200 yards in 11 straight games.

The three top receivers are back, Loren Richey, Craig McEwen and James Hardy. Richey set a school record with 73 catches for 971 yards and seven touchdowns.

Tailback Eddie Johnson, who ran for 1,012 yards in 1984 but was slowed by injuries last year, also returns.

The offensive line is led by center Gary Andersen, guard Isaako Poti and tackle James Hansen.

On defense, the Utes return but three starters, but depth will be better overall. Safety Mike Jones, tackle Jeff McMillian and nose guard Gamaliel Rivers are regulars and linebacker Mark Geiselmayr is very talented.

Andre Guardi is a topnotch place-kicker. He made 18 of 22 field goals and has a streak of 88 straight conversions.

Oct. 5 — At Champaign — 76,343

Illinois	14	0	7	10 — 31
Ohio State	0	14	14	0 — 28

In a game of emotional highs and agonizing lows, Illinois edged Ohio State 31-28, on Chris White's 38-yard field goal as the clock ran out.

Illinois scored the first 14 points and looked unstoppable. But Ohio State answered with 28 straight points and appeared to be in command, 28-14 with 4:52 left in the third period. Back came the Illini with two touchdowns to knot the game at 28.

As time wound down, Illinois, starting on their 42, marched to the Buckeye 21 and called time out with three seconds remaining. White then kicked the deciding field goal that was to haunt Ohio State all season.

Buckeye freshman Vince Workman rushed for 100 yards in 15 carries and had a 35-yard scoring run. The Buckeye passing featured two players, Jim Karsatos who did all the passing and Cris Carter, who caught all seven Buckeye completions for 147 yards and two touchdowns.

Smarting from last week's loss to Illinois, Ohio State dealt previously undefeated Indiana a 48-7 jolt. The Buckeyes completely dominated by jumping out to a 35-7 lead at halftime.

Tailback John Wooldridge scored four of Ohio State's first five TDs. All told, Wooldridge ran for 104 yards and caught three passes, one for a touchdown.

Ohio State ran for 294 yards and passed for 224. The 518 total yards was the best effort of the year for OSU.

Sonny Gordon and Terry White each had interceptions for the Buckeyes. Eric Kumerow had 10 tackles and Chris Spielman recorded three quarterback sacks.

Coach Earle Bruce used 61 players in the one-sided contest, including 11 ball carriers.

The Ohio State victory continued the nation's longest Division I jinx, as the Buckeyes have 29 wins and one tie over Indiana in the last 30 encounters.

It was a great day for the offense, as Purdue and Ohio State staged a shootout in jammed Ohio Stadium. There were 68 points scored, 973 yards gained and 49 first downs recorded as the Buckeyes bested the Boilermakers.

It marked the 1985 debut of Keith Byars, who responded with 106 yards gained and two touchdowns. The Buckeye ground game chewed up the Purdue line with 264 yards, while the Boilermaker pass attack rolled up 497 yards on 35 completions of 55 attempts. Purdue's Jim Everett accounted for all the passing yardage but was intercepted twice and sacked four times.

The Buckeye defense shut down the Purdue running game with a meager 43 yards. Ohio State passed sparingly but effectively with 13 completions of 27 attempts and two touchdowns.

Ohio linebackers Pepper Johnson and Chris Spielman combined for 27 tackles to pace the defense.

In a thrilling game that saw the lead change four times and wasn't decided until the final 48 seconds, Ohio State edged Minnesota 23-19 before a record crowd in the Hubert Humphrey Metrodome.

Minnesota played with great dedication as the Gophers outgained the Buckeyes 237 yards to 173 on the ground and 147 yards to 115 in the air.

After several lead changes, Minnesota led 19-10 in the fourth quarter and smelled an upset. With their backs to the wall, Ohio State marched 90 yards in 16 plays to narrow the deficit to 19-17.

With a third and 13 situation on the Minnesota 13, the Gophers tried a pass but Ohio's William White intercepted. The Buckeyes then drove 53 yards in seven plays to take a 23-19 lead.

Minnesota had a chance to win, facing a fourth and one at the Buckeye 12 with :48 seconds left but was stopped for no gain, thus losing the ball and the game.

Ohio State toppled previously unbeaten and top-rated Iowa 22-13 before a record Ohio Stadium crowd of 90,467 and a national television audience.

Heroes abounded for Ohio State. One was rover Sonny Gordon, whose block of an Iowa punt put OSU on top 5-0. Another was John Wooldridge, whose 57 yard scoring run gave the Buckeyes a 12-0 margin and may have been the play that did in the Hawkeyes.

Cornerbacks William White and Greg Rogan each had interceptions in the second quarter to deflate the Hawks.

Linebackers Chris Spielman and Pepper Johnson each had 19 tackles as the Buck defense forced six Iowa miscues. Spielman also had two pass interceptions.

The closest Iowa could get was 7-15 at the half. Neither team scored in the third period and the teams traded touchdowns in the final stanza. Jim Karsatos was 10 of 17 in passing and George Cooper ran for 104 yards.

Fearing a letdown from last week's emotional high with Iowa, the Buckeyes came out smoking by scoring on each of the first three possessions to take a 21-0 lead.

The Buckeyes increased the lead to 35-0 in the third quarter after which Coach Earle Bruce began to substitute liberally.

Jim Karsatos had one of his best games for the Buckeyes, completing 16 of 20 passes for 275 yards and three touchdowns. One completion was a 75-yard bomb to Mike Lanese for the second score. John Wooldridge ran for 83 yards to lead the ground game. Nine ball carriers were used by Ohio State.

Pepper Johnson and Chris Spielman led the Buckeye defense with 10 and eight tackles respectively. William White and Sonny Gordon had Ohio interceptions. A total of 24 different players made at least one tackle for Ohio State.

Wisconsin stunned Ohio State 12-7 before 89,873 unbelieving fans in Ohio Stadium. The loss knocked Ohio State out of the Big Ten lead shared with Iowa, dashed Ohio's Rose Bowl hopes and ended a 20-game home field winning streak.

Even though the Buckeyes outgained the Badgers 365 yards to 222, the aroused Wisconsin defense held the Buckeyes to a lone touchdown. Three Buckeye fumbles, all recovered by Wisconsin, sealed Ohio State's doom.

A 37-yard scoring pass from Jim Karsatos to Cris Carter just before the half gave the Buckeyes a 7-6 margin but the Buckeye offense was to self-destruct in the second half.

Wisconsin recovered a Buckeye fumble on the Ohio 22 late in the third quarter and four plays later scored from the one. There was no more scoring even though Ohio had drives stopped at the 11 and at the three.

A brilliant performance by Michigan quarterback Jim Harbaugh was too much for Ohio State as the Wolverines downed the Buckeyes 27-17 in Ann Arbor.

The two rivals battled to a 10-10 tie the first half. Michigan scored a field goal and a touchdown on its first two possessions the third quarter to take a 20-10 lead going into the final period.

The Buckeyes marched 80 yards in nine plays, seven being passes, to narrow the margin to 17-20. The score came on a 36-yard pass from Jim Karsatos to Cris Carter, who outjumped two defenders in the end zone.

Two plays later, Michigan nailed down the win with a 77-yard scoring pass from Harbaugh to John Kolesar.

Harbaugh completed 16 of 19 passes for 230 yards and three touchdowns. The Buckeye defense held the Wolverine ground game to 194 yards, far below average, but could not cope with Harbaugh.

OHIO STATE has led the nation in attendance per home game for 21 of the last 35 years and has been second 10 times and third four times

The symbol of Ohio State University football is Ohio Stadium, a stately, venerable, 65-year-old structure that has been the home site for Buckeye games since 1922. Its unique, double-decked, horseshoe-shaped design has been studied by countless architects and designers.

Ohio State played its early football at Ohio Field, with a capacity of 14,000. When the University joined the Western Conference (now the Big Ten) in 1913, pressure for a larger stadium mounted.

World War I temporarily arrested plans for a new stadium, but in October, 1920, the Stadium campaign officially began. Alumni, friends of Ohio State, Columbus residents and students supported the cause. More than 13,000 people pledged gifts totaling $1,083,000 and the dream thus became a reality.

Construction began in August, 1921, and by September, 1922, the structure was virtually completed. The cost of the Stadium was $1,341,000, an unheard-of figure in those days. The original capacity was 66,210. Critics bitterly chastised Ohio State Athletic Director L. W. St. John for such an extravagant facility that had "thousands of seats that would never be filled."

Ohio Stadium was dedicated October 21, 1922 and an overflow crowd of 71,385 fans was present.

The capacity of the concrete structure has been gradually increased to 73,349 with the addition of several rows of seats, narrowing the width of all seats, and by creating additional boxes. South stands and temporary field seats have been added. The south stands have been enlarged numerous times, the most recent in 1982, raising the seating capacity to 85,339. An additional 1,000 standing room tickets are sold.

Ohio Stadium has unusual design. Towers are located at each side of the open end. The circumference is one-third of a mile and the ground area is ten acres. The Stadium is 752 feet long and 596 feet wide. The height of the back wall is 98 feet.

There are 56 stairways, 12 ramps and 112 aisles feeding 81 exits. A capacity crowd can clear the Stadium in seven minutes.

With the conclusion of the 1985 season, 25,126,734 people have watched 362 Ohio State football games, an average of 69,411 per game and more than the original capacity.
